Certification & Admission Policy

Certification:

By submitting this application, I/we certify that the information contained herein is accurate to the best of my/our knowledge and that the admissions committee may rely upon it for admissions decisions.

I/we also acknowledge that the registration fee for each application submitted is $200 (if submitted before by the 'early bird' deadline.) If this application is submitted after March 20, 2020, we will need to pay a $360 registration fee for each application submitted before an admissions decision will be rendered.

Please be sure to review the Admissions Checklist on page 6 before submitting your application. Please send completed forms to TASA's Admissions Office (office@torahacademysa.com).

Admissions & Acceptance Policy:

Following submission of this Admissions Application, TASA's Dean of Students will arrange for an interview with the student. Any admissions decision will be contingent upon an interview with the Dean of Students, receipt of applicable forms as listed in the Admissions Checklist and transmitted to the TASA Office with receipt of an executed Tuition Contract and tuition/financial aid application (if applicable). TASA reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant or to expel any enrolled student if the admission or continued enrollment would, in the sole judgment of the Dean of Students, be detrimental to the interests of TASA.

Typing/Signing your name below will serve as your signature in attesting that the contents you submitted in this document are true; and that you understand and agree to the TASA Certification & Admissions policies stated above.

To Whom It May Concern:

The student listed above has applied for admission to Shmuel Bass Torah Academy of San Antonio. To assist us in making an informed admissions decision, please send us the following for current and previous year:

1. Academic records (please include most recent report card and any standardized testings).
2. Copies of any relevant educational/psychological testing or evaluations.
3. Evaluations and/or recommendation letters.

These evaluations will be kept in strict confidence and used solely to help form a thoughtful admissions decision; they will not be part of the student's permanent record. Thank you so much for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

Administration
